Soldier Who Killed Wife and Brother Will Pay Penalty on the Gallows.

Gallows.

For the first time during President Tart's administration a hanging will be beld in the District to-day. Samuel W. Rauen, a-soldier, convicted of the marginer of his wife and herother last spring. Will go to the gallows between lo and 2 o'clock. Efforts yesterday to obtain a turther reprieve for Rauen, to whom executive clemency atready has been extended once, proved furile.

Rauen's attorney. Ethelbert Frey, and Representative McDermott of Illinois yesterday beld a conference with the President, urging that Rauen's sentence be commuted. After an hour's consultation with attorney General Wickersham, who had an investigation of Rauen's case made by the Department of Justice, President Tart decided to take no actua. The execution will take place at the District jail. The erection of the gallows was completed yesterday. The death watch was put on Rauen at midnight last night.
